Dear Mr. Korte

Please be advised that I believe that you are in violation of the Inspection of Public Records Act. Your prior communication indicated that you had identified several hundred pages of records responsive to the April 10, 2013 IPRA request and that the records would be provided by this date. I also note that you extended the time period for your response several times without sufficient cause or justification.

That you have identified the records responsive to the request leads me to believe that you are withholding records from inspection in violation of the Inspection of Public Records Act. What are you hiding? Your plan for a rolling disclosure and your statement that the disclosure could take several more months to complete is without cause or justification and is bad faith.

As you know under IPRA there are daily statutory penalties and the provision for the award of attorney's fees. To date, not one record has been produced by DFA since the April 10, 2013 IPRA request.

You must comply with IPRA immediately and produce records that are responsive to the April 10, 2013 IPRA request made on behalf of Rick May.
